Are you sick & don't know where to go?

When I should go to URGENT CARE:

To get a quick prescription for a common ailment such as
- Colds, Coughs or Sore Throats
- Flu or Fever
- Urinary Tract Infections
- Earaches
- Minor Cuts, Burns or Rashes
- STDs

When I should go to the DOCTOR:

- To get a diagnosis for a new or developing issue
- Pre-existing conditions
  ie. High Blood Pressure, ADHD
- Yearly Well Exams
- Ongoing issues or pain

When I should go to EMERGENCY ROOM:

DON'T MAKE THIS MISTAKE!

Emergency rooms are VERY different in the U.S. You only go to them for REAL emergencies. If it is not an emergency you will be forced to wait several hours, you will pay a lot of money & you may end up leaving without the proper care.

- Intolerable/Uncontrollable Pain
- Chest Pain/Pressure
- Poisoning
- Major Injuries
  ie. Deep cuts
- Severe Allergic Reactions

Always have a copy of your insurance card with you on paper or on your phone
