FERPA Notice

The Family Education Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 (FERPA) allows students at an institution of higher education to control outside access to their education records, including requests for information from their parents, guardians, or others as designated by the student. Without a student's written consent, North American University (NAU) may not disclose information from a student's education records to outside third parties with a few exceptions. However, a student may provide a standing release allowing NAU to disclose certain information to others. To do so, the following declaration must be completed:

I, the above-named student, hereby declare that North American University may release information to the following authorized party and for the following reasons:

|                   |                                  |
|-------------------|----------------------------------|
| Authorized Party: | Authorized Party's Email Address |
|-------------------|----------------------------------|

Relationship of the Authorized Party: (select one)  Parent  Guardian  Spouse  Other

Please note: If you have more than one authorized party, please fill out an additional authorization form.
