The U.S. Department of Education flagged your 2024-2025 FAFSA for Unusual Enrollment History (UEH) review because you received Federal Pell Grant and/or Federal Direct Loan funds from multiple institutions during the review period that includes the 2020-2021, 2021-2022, 2022-2023, and 2023-2024 academic years. This flag requires NAU to review your enrollment history to determine aid eligibility. Please upload your completed form with all required documentation to your Financial Aid Student Portal. Forms submitted with missing documentation including ALL prior college transcripts will be considered incomplete and will not be processed.

Step 1: Previous College/University Attended

- Previous College(s) – list ALL colleges previously attended during the review period in the table below, including North American University (if applicable). If additional space is needed, attach a new page listing all schools attended and include your name and student ID at the top of each page.
- Academic Transcript(s) – your academic transcripts will be requested from the University Records Office. If any transcripts are not on file, you are required to upload the unofficial transcript(s) to your Financial Aid Student Portal to complete the UEH review process. For transfer credit evaluation, all official transcripts must be submitted to the Records Office.
